Wormwood subscriptions are $4.50/4 issues/year to individuals and $6.00/4 issues/year to institutions. Patron subscriptions are a $12.00 bargain for four consecutive issues with poet-signed, center sections. Free inspection copies are not available because of our very limited press run. Copies of issues 16-23 and 25-71 are still available at $2.00/issue postpaid. Issues 1-15 and 24 are out-of-print, but reasonable prices can be quoted on an individual basis when and if clean copies can be located. Copies are now on hand for all except issues 1-3 which are virtually impossible to find. Microfilm volumes of Wormwood are available presently from University Microfilms, 3101 North Zeeb Road, Ann Arbor MI 48106. The contents of Wormwood are indexed in Index of American Periodical Verse, Scarecrow Press Inc., P.O. Box 656, Metuchen NJ 08840.

Libraries must remember that Wormwood does not claim to be a regular quarterly -- the magazine is an irregular quarterly, i.e. four issues are published every year, but the issues are mailed out at irregular intervals. Because of the frankly prohibitive postal/mailing costs, two issues (or more) are mailed out in one envelope. All subscriptions are absolutely guaranteed through and including the next index issue (Vol. 21, no. 4; Issue 84), but the press will not respond to library claims when the issues in question have not yet been generally released for mailing.

We have now completed 18 years of little mag publishing. We thank all subscribers for their patience and devotion.
